

Rotation Schedule

September–December 2011

Note: The YWWP conference is the 4th Sunday in October so for those who are on schedule to teach that Sunday, if you could make yourselves available to assist the girls on their day, that would be greatly appreciated (details to follow).

Those who are on schedule for Christmas day will not be teaching as it is a holiday, but for the purposes of the rotation it was left in (you will start the rotation off on January 8, 2012)
